

17th March 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

Top 3 Attendance scores this week

1st Luther King: 98 %

2nd Donaldson and Ennis Hill 97.3 %

Well done to for your fantastic attendance!

Scholastic Book Fair

We will be holding a scholastic book fair every day after school next week from 3:10 -3:45 where you can come with your child and purchase new and exciting books. The children will be visiting the book fair on Monday afternoon to look at the books that they may want to buy. As a school, we receive a percentage of the overall book sales so it would be great for as many families as possible to visit the book fair.

Parents Evening

A reminder that it will be parents evening on the 21st and 22nd March after school from 3:10- 6:00pm. The children have been working incredibly hard this year and we are keen to share this with you. We will also have some of our MHST (Mentally Healthy Schools Team) on hand between 4 and 5 on each of the days to offer advice/ sign post to any additional support for parents.

Easter Bonnet Competition

Don't forget we will be holding an Easter Bonnet competition on the 31st March. All entries need to come in school by Wednesday 29th March. We will be holding an Easter Bonnet Parade for all parents at 3pm on the 31st March before the children are dismissed at the end of the day.

Book Swap

The children all loved the book swap, it was fantastic to see how enthusiastic the children were and to see their love of reading. A big thank you to our fantastic pupil council (and Mrs Clarke) for all their hard work arranging and facilitating this.

Red Nose Day.

It has been a busy week this week for our pupil council – arranging the book swap and doing a bake sale for Red Nose Day. Thank you all for your support, it was lovely to see the children showing their support by wearing red and we were blown away by your cake donations. We definitely have some future bake off contestants at our school. We managed to raise a total of £170 for comic relief!

Have a lovely weekend,

Mrs Akroyd, Vice Principal and Miss Horsfall, Principal.
