

11th November 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been lovely to see you all back after the half term. The children have come back full of energy and ready to learn. We have been incredibly proud of all their hard work this week.

Diwali Arts and Crafts

On Monday 13th November at 9am we will be hosting another of our successful parent and child arts and crafts sessions to celebrate Diwali. We hope to see lots of you there as we create our own diya lamps and other Diwali themed crafts.

Prospective Parents Open Evenings

On Tuesday 14th and Thursday 16th November at 5pm we will be hosting open evenings for the reception 2024 cohort. We would love old and new faces there, please let any friends or family know who have children due to attend school next September.

Emotional Wellbeing Workshops EYFS and KS1

Our Mentally Healthy Schools Team will be in school on Wednesday 15th November to deliver some emotional wellbeing workshops with our EYFS and KS1 children. These workshops will support the children to identify emotions and begin to consider strategies they can use to manage their emotions if they become overwhelming.

Homework

Please can all parents support their child to complete their CGP homework books. These are due in each week on a set date and will then go home again once they have been looked at by the teacher. We also use spelling frame and TT Rockstars to support our children with their spellings and recall of their times tables facts. If there are any issues with completing homework we do run a homework club to support children, please ask at the office for more information.

Ingleborough Hall

A reminder that it will be our Y6 residential trip to Ingleborough hall on Monday 20th November – Wednesday 22nd November. Mrs Akroyd and Miss Vincent have got their fingers crossed it stays dry!

Remembrance Day

The whole school observed a minute's silence today in the 'Secret Garden' in memory of all the men and women who died in service. Mr Baker played the last post on his bugle and some of our children read out different poems. The children were incredibly respectful, we were very proud.

Warm wishes

Miss Horsfall, Mrs Akroyd, Miss Vincent (SLT)
